Hurry, hurry! Don't be slow to inspect this cottage, when you do, your heart will melt. Fully renovated the home is situated in a very central location close, to shops, schools, cafes and restaurants, art gallery parks and there is easy access to the CBD. This home would be suitable for the investor, the first home buyer or perfect for those looking to downsize and not wanting to worry about living in complexes and dealing with strata. So many features you will be totally impressed, some including:-

- Modern northeast facing kitchen. Large windows welcome the sunshine and natural light, any cook would be in their element. Plenty of storage and bench space, just waiting for you to cook up a storm. Great for entertaining as it is so close to the dining area.
- The bathroom has been tastefully renovated using neutral tones, making it very easy to use different accessories to add your taste.
- The formal lounge room is a central area to gather, or a quiet get away to sit and read and think how lucky you are to be living in this home.
- Large bedrooms, with the main having a dressing area which could also be used as an office or perfect as a nursery
- The split system offers both heating and cooling, giving you year-round comfort
- There is a lock-up garage and workshop for extra storage and ideal for those wanting to have an area for their hobbies
- The established yard is secure and very private, a perfect haven to relax in.

Plenty on offer here, and the best thing is all the work has been tastefully done. All you have to do is move in and enjoy.
