Nestled on an expansive 809 m² parcel of land in the serene haven of Nambour Heights side of Burnside, this extraordinary family residence effortlessly combines space, sophistication, and tranquility. With four generously proportioned bedrooms, a dedicated media room, and two modern bathrooms (including a luxurious master ensuite with double showers), this meticulously designed home is the epitome of family comfort. Upon entry, you'll immediately admire the well-planned layout that ensures privacy and serenity by seamlessly segregating the master suite from the rest of the home. Recent renovations have revitalized this residence, introducing a contemporary kitchen, an elegant new ensuite, updated bathrooms, and pristine floor tiles to name a few. Step outside to explore the upgraded covered rear patio, a captivating space for entertaining, complete with a fire pit and a wood-fired barbecue, providing the perfect canvas for creating cherished memories with loved ones. Positioned at the highest point of the property, an enchanting gazebo overlooks the valley, offering an idyllic retreat to unwind with a glass of wine while immersing yourself in the breathtaking scenery as the day gracefully transitions into evening.
