Discover your ideal small country lifestyle property; meticulously maintained by its attentive owners, both the interior and exterior of the home are in impeccable condition. Featuring three generously proportioned bedrooms and a delightful, sun-drenched open plan kitchen, dining, and living area, this home provides ample space for comfortable living. The heating system is thoughtfully designed, encompassing a reverse cycle heat pump for year-round comfort, along with a charming wood fire for cozy ambiance. Nestled on approximately one acre of lush pasture, the property boasts breathtaking views overlooking the scenic valley. Vehicle storage is abundant, with a double garage and two carports to accommodate all your needs. Conveniently situated within a 45-minute commute to Launceston, this property ensures easy access to city amenities while allowing you to relish the tranquility of a rural setting. Local amenities, including a nearby shop and petrol station, provide everyday convenience, and the beach is a mere 10 minutes away, promising endless opportunities for seaside enjoyment. Don't miss the chance to make this extraordinary country lifestyle property your own.
