What the Owners say"After purchasing the property new in 2016 shortly after it was built, we absolutely fell in love with the Homes By CMA display home. We felt that the property would suit a range of people and therefore initially kept the home as an investment. We did consider options about whether we would ever move there knowing it is such a wonderful area. However, we have made the decision that this would be unlikely as we are settled interstate and felt it was a great opportunity for someone else to call it home.
