As you turn into Benjamin Court, your eye is instantly drawn to this eye-catching home at the end of the street. Positioned at the end of a small cul de sac, this large home boasts all that a family could want. As you enter the main foyer, you are greeted by the staircase that leads upstairs with direct access also to the formal and informal living spaces. The living spaces are generous in proportion, with the kitchen being the heart of the home between these. Upstairs you will find four bedrooms, the main with an ensuite and the main bathroom. The yard is fully fenced and low maintenance with the home also offering a double garage with internal access.
