With 2024 just around the corner, now is the perfect time to secure the new home you've been searching for, and this sensational offering in a peaceful courtside setting is one you're going to love. The immaculately presented one-owner home is spread across a generous single level, enjoying a well-considered floorplan that has been carefully crafted for family living. Parents will relish the privacy they're afforded at the front of the home where the master bedroom takes pride of place. It is serviced by a walk-in robe and a fully renovated ensuite and enjoys close proximity to a spacious living room offering garden vistas on either side. The remaining two bedrooms, which are also robed, are located at the rear, serviced by a central bathroom that has been fully updated to include a deep freestanding soaker tub and an oversized walk-in shower. The space is shared by a generously proportioned open study and a substantial family room which is the ideal place for casual living to take place. An expansive kitchen-dining area acts as a conduit between the two zones whilst forming the hub of the home. The modern U-shaped kitchen comprises stone benchtops, a Blanco cooktop and extra-wide wall oven, a Miele dishwasher, glass splashbacks and a substantial amount of storage options, and the dining room is large enough to ensure special occasions can be enjoyed with friends and family with ease. In perfect complement to the home's indoor spaces are those found outdoors. There is a substantial timber deck overlooking the lushness of the sizeable grassed yard which offers a pleasing mix of undercover and open-air, allowing it to be used regardless of the weather. It is framed by beautiful garden surrounds that have been curated over time to create a tranquil retreat. A range of extras enhance the home, including gas ducted heating, evaporative cooling, ceiling fans, Tasmanian Oak floorboards, a full-sized laundry, abundant storage options, solar panels, a water tank, a double lock-up garage with sensor lights and rear roller door access, and a central location amongst a number of desirable amenities such as local buses, Scoresby Village and Westfield Knox Shopping Centres, open green spaces like Llewelyn Park and Scoresby Recreation Reserve and a range of schools and educational facilities.
