This beautiful 701m² block is mostly cleared and backs onto farmland. There are still some trees that need a trim. Build your dream and live a very peaceful life on Lamb Island. Water glimpses across the Lucas Passage to Macleay Island. The island has a small convenience store where you can get a coffee and a great hamburger. The local rec centre opens for meals and many events. Woolworth delivers your groceries and it is free boat ride inter island to Russell Island where there is a great IGA.
