A warm and welcoming family atmosphere resonates throughout this home with plenty of accommodation for the family and space for the family to relax at home and entertain with friends. The bedrooms are all spacious and the centrally located bathroom is also generous in size. The lounge room and general living area has air conditioning and the floor plan flows out from the dining area to a huge covered deck overlooking the large fenced yard. Downstairs, the home continues to impress with a renovated multi purpose rumpus area where children can play, teenagers can hang out, parents can relax, or use as an office space complete with full bathroom and kitchenette. There is also amazing storage in this area in addition to the double garage. Don't wait. Arrange an inspection now as this home will suit many types of buyers from investors to families.* Within 1km radius to supermarket, doctors surgery & primary school* Just 2km to local high school
