New to the market in the gorgeous historic town of Oatlands, is this good sized three bedroom home, just a short walk to the local school, playground and the Esplanade. Oatlands is a gorgeous town to live in with all the beautiful sandstone Georgian homes lining the streets. This home is filled with lovely features and period charm, with high ceilings, picture rails, timber floors and a sunroom/office/craft room adjoining the main living space. There is also a double garage in the back yard, great if you have a project or two going on.
