This wonderful property combines the key elements that all great family homes possess: a spacious design, thoughtful touches of both comfort and style, and a sought-after location. 4 Candlebark Crescent is tucked away in a quiet pocket of Brooklands Estate, and has four bedrooms, including a master with a large walk-in wardrobe and en suite. There's two separate living rooms, with the main one part of an open-plan design that incorporates the dining area and the modern kitchen. The interior is serviced by ducted heating and cooling systems. The almost 800-square-metre block is overlooked by a covered entertaining area and has been stocked with lovely lawns and gardens, with an attached double lock-up garage and side access to the backyard completing the exterior's handy additions. Convenient to North Orange Shopping Centre, parks, schools and walking trails, this house is positioned to sell to a family that is looking to upgrade to their forever home.
