This is very special. Immaculately presented with nothing for the new owner to do! Dual parking access, maintenance free generous back yard and all level for you. Freshly painted throughout and close to all amenities. This great little home is positioned extremely close to the famous MONA where you can enjoy a sneaky beverage on a Saturday afternoon. If you're a first home buyer there are so many Government incentives to assist you with entering into the market and there has never been a better time to get going. This home is ideal and has so much to offer. Please call us today before this gem gets snapped up!
