Well-loved and well-kept this stunningly built brick home is close to all the amenities Norlane has to offer. Comprising of three comfortable sized carpeted bedrooms, a central bathroom, adjoining kitchen and meals area providing ample natural light throughout and an additional rumpus at the rear of the home that can easily be used as an additional bedroom or living area with a sink and extra powder room. If your future plan is to move in and enjoy the existing property, renovate and create your dream home or simply invest, do so with ease with this great property on a 518m² (approx.) block. The location here is simply superb, we are only minutes away from the Bell Post Hill Shopping precinct, a range of schools for all ages and the ease of public transportation. Don't miss your chance to secure this great property in a great location!
