This immaculately maintained, much loved family home is offered for sale for the first time. Photo's simply don't do justice to this truly unique home. Ideally located in an elevated part of Old Newborough, this gem will have you feeling right at home from the moment you step foot inside. From the substantial sized living space with custom built stone chimney to the bay windows bathed in natural light, this character filled home has it all. Features to the home include: • Two separate living zones with central heating throughout • Three fantastic sized bedrooms • Master suite boasting bay window, walk in robe and well appointed ensuite • Beautifully presented kitchen featuring as the heart of the home • Large front porch with stunning outlook towards Mt Baw Baw and beyond • Large garage/workshop plus carport and alfresco • Established, low maintenance gardens front and back The saying, "They don't build them like they used to" rings true with this classic.
