If your family is looking for a home that boasts many of the characteristic of a bygone era, this charming, perfectly presented Federation semi-detached property could be just what you have been seeking. Here you will find high patterned ceilings, a decorative archway in the hall, a fireplace in the formal living room, polished timber flooring and tiling in harmony with the history of the home. An extension, which adds to the already existing generous floorplan, has been built at the rear of the property. This area includes a spacious dine in kitchen plus a family room. These rooms have been tastefully designed to allow additional informal living space and ample natural light to the area. Underneath the home there is a large laundry area which could double as a storage room and an extra w.c. A child's cubby house in the garden is included with the property. - Two generously appointed bedrooms, both with built-in wardrobes and second bedroom with air conditioner - Formal airconditioned lounge room with fireplace - The modern eat-in kitchen features quality gas stainless steel appliances and a dishwasher - Family room - The interiors have recently been painted - Federation bathroom - Separate laundry/storage space - Second w.c - Security grilles to all windows - Private yard surrounded by mature gardens - Land area 278 sqm approx. Convenient location within an easy level walk to Arncliffe station, shops, schools and parks.
