Tucked away in a quiet treelined cul-de-sac, this well-maintained residence promises effortless living at the perfect address. You'll love being a short walk from popular eateries, shops, parks, train and the primary school, with the city less than an hour away by car or rail. Open the front door to experience an instant sense of space and a lovely welcoming feel. Our tour begins with a generous lounge room for relaxing or entertaining. The front part of the house also reveals a carpeted master presenting a walk-in robe and tidy ensuite. Now wander down the hallway to find two more bedrooms with built-ins, both awash with natural light. There's also a neat family bathroom featuring a separate shower and bath. From here, venture into the main living zone, which basks in afternoon sun. It adjoins the open dining area and kitchen, creating an inviting central hub. The kitchen is appointed with a gas cooktop, large breakfast bar and ample bench space, while the dining area flows to a sheltered alfresco area in a fully fenced backyard. Here you can enjoy the easy care gardens and sounds of birdsong while watching children or pets at play. Just when you thought you'd seen everything, this home surprises with even more. It includes ducted heating and split system air conditioning, along with an oversized lock-up garage boasting drivethrough access to the backyard. Tradies and home handypersons will delight in the massive multi-purpose shed with insulation, concrete floor and air conditioning. Catering for all stages of life, this is a home ready to move into and enjoy. It's a smart buy in a truly desirable location.
