Full of 1970's charm, this immaculate residence exudes timeless appeal, platinum presentation and exciting potential for the future on 651 sqm (approx). The first house to be built on the street, exposed brickwork and natural light add enduring charm and character to well-maintained interiors. A skylit entry introduces a cosy lounge/dining domain, updated kitchen/meals area, 3 robed bedrooms (main with ensuite/WIR), bathroom, outdoor entertaining terrace, split system heating/AC, double glazed windows, workshop and double carport with ample storage. Move in comfortably for now, while considering adding your own contemporary style to existing spaces or starting afresh and rebuilding your dream home or multiple townhouses (STCA) in the future. Peacefully located within walking distance to the highly sought-after Camelot Rise Primary and Highvale Secondary, and close to The Glen, Kingsway, parklands, Wesley and transport options.
