A sale more than half a century in the making, this freestanding three bedroom home has been tightly held by one family for 56 years and now presents an excellent opportunity in a great locale. With living and family rooms plus a kitchen/meals, it has an easily maintained backyard and enticing future scope. Fully equipped, the kitchen hosts stainless steel appliances and a walk-in pantry and is ready to help make delicious meals. Heating and cooling provide immediate comfort, three double bedrooms share a sparkling central bathroom and additional shower, plus polished floorboards, sizeable sheds and plentiful parking, including a carport, add extra appeal. With approx 571m²(16.8mt Frontage) of land there's also room to consider transformation, extension or something completely new (subject to council approval). In a top spot seconds to Hansen and Etzel Street reserves and tennis courts, a stroll to transport, schools, McNamara Avenue shops and cafes, it's just a short drive to Westfield, Essendon Fields, freeway and Ring Road access.
