SOLD by Jellis Craig. Hang up your car keys and forget about petrol prices – living this close to the heart of Hurstbridge Village means there is no need to drive anywhere! School, shops, train station, regular bus and acres of parkland are all an easy stroll from this stunning character home. Light-filled and lovely, this circa 1910 home features polished Baltic floors, high ceilings and beautiful leadlight accents throughout. The centrepiece of the inviting living room is a gorgeous Edwardian fireplace, accompanied by a generous dining room with bay window and French doors to both the front and rear decks. The central kitchen is equipped with granite benchtops, quality stainless steel appliances (including 900mm freestanding cooker), generous pantry and pretty garden views, while further accommodation includes 3 robed bedrooms (main with walk-in robe and sparkling ensuite), family bathroom with double vanity, and compact laundry. Front and rear decks create an effortless link to a quarter acre of lush established gardens complete with wide lawn, grand old Elm trees, box hedging and roses, with privacy hedging encompassing the property perimeter. Enjoying welcome extras like split system heating/cooling, mud brick shed, ample off-street parking, scope to add a garage (STCA) and unbeatable proximity to all local conveniences - this inviting home is pretty much irresistible!
