Welcome to 4 Harback Street! Perfectly positioned within a quiet, yet convenient pocket of Zillmere, this spectacular, low-set brick home ensures low-maintenance with a functional layout and is perfectly designed for an effortless family lifestyle. Upon entry, residents are greeted by a welcoming atmosphere that extends through the charming living and dining areas. The modern kitchen, a heart of this home, is equipped with an abundance of storage and sophisticated stainless-steel appliances catering to culinary enthusiasts. Transitioning smoothly from inside to out, the residence features an impressive outdoor living space accessible via sliding glass doors. This expansive area beckons for memorable entertainment or peaceful moments soaking in the serene ambiance of the private backyard. The estate is accentuated by its three generously proportioned bedrooms, ensuring ample space for all family members, while the inclusion of a separate study lends itself to various functional needs. Features of 4 Harback Street include:- Three bedrooms equipped with built-in robes, two boasting ceiling fans for added comfort.- A versatile family room offering a potential fourth bedroom conversion.- Modern, climate-controlled living with air conditioning units in both the lounge and family areas.- Spacious, well-equipped kitchen featuring stainless steel appliances and abundant storage.- Expansive alfresco zone complementing a sizable, private backyard for outdoor living.- A separate study, catering to home office or academic needs.- Well-appointed family bathroom with a shower, bath, and separate toilet.- Practical internal laundry facility to streamline household chores.- Triple lock-up garage with additional side access to accommodate cars, caravans, or trailers.- Security measures including security screens on all doors and fly screens throughout. Beyond the confines of this delightful dwelling, the locality offers a plethora of amenities: local shopping venues, food outlets, parks, and reputable schools – specifically in the catchment areas for Taigum State School and Aspley State High School – affirming the family-oriented character of the suburb. Connectivity is further underscored by the proximity to Brisbane City Council bus services and the Westfield Chermside, mere minutes away, delivering an assortment of shopping and dining experiences.
