This iconic, 1950s architect-designed home occupies a coveted position within an exclusively private enclave; an expansive outlook to the Derwent River and position within a substantial allotment promise a lifestyle to satisfy all. The current owner has transformed the inside of the home with a new open plan kitchen with quality appliances, laundry and ensuite. The home offers a striking deco style, from the unique façade and classic entry foyer to the curved iron windows of the front master bedroom. Three double bedrooms, all with built-in robes, and one with new ensuite, provide an adaptable floorplan; the central bathroom reflects elements of its era, so adaptable in today's interiors. Flexibility is assured, with the original separate kitchen adjoining the dining that flows via glass French doors to the spacious and comfortable lounge; this substantial platform offers scope to open and extend for a modern plan or simply to enjoy the current comfortable flow. The wonderful front balcony and rear private courtyard create the perfect area for alfresco entertaining at any time of day. Set on 1733m² of land, the current owner has had previous approval to subdivide a block off the rear with access off Coolamon Road. STCA, this could be investigated again, all the while retaining a substantial and private property accessible from Harrow Place. Either separately or as a whole, this property offers fabulous foundations for the whole family, with space for the children and pets to run with peace of mind.
