Nestled within a serene cul-de-sac, this exquisite four-bedroom home offers a harmonious blend of comfort and elegance. As you step inside, the rich timber floors guide you through the bustling heart of the house, seamlessly connecting the lively traffic areas and the welcoming family zones. The bedrooms and main lounge room, adorned with plush carpets, provide a cozy retreat, perfect for unwinding after a long day. The recently refreshed bathrooms exude a contemporary charm, ensuring that you can move in without lifting a finger. Each bedroom stands as a testament to thoughtful design, spacious enough to cater to the dynamic needs of a growing family, ensuring everyone has their sanctuary. For added convenience, the main bedroom features block-out shutters, providing the perfect environment for a restful sleep, day or night. The pièce de résistance is the open plan family living and dining area, where space and light dance harmoniously, creating an inviting atmosphere for gatherings and cherished moments. This space effortlessly flows out to a vast, fully undercover entertaining area, making it ideal for hosting friends and family, regardless of the season. Additionally, the home is equipped with a 3kW solar system, promoting energy efficiency and reducing your carbon footprint. Adding to the home's allure is the oversized ducted air conditioning system, guaranteeing a perfect climate year-round. This home is more than just a dwelling; it's a haven where memories are made, laughter is shared, and dreams are nurtured. Come, experience the magic of this home, and let it welcome you with open arms.
