Enconced in Alphington's prized riverside locale this five bedroom two bathroom period home shines through a recent renovation. Showcasing stylish interiors over three versatile living domains, this immaculately presented home combines period elegance, modern quality and family flexibility with consummate ease. Beyond two spacious ground floor bedrooms, the luxe master with a glamorous dressing room and ensuite, and a beautifully presented sitting room, fabulous family living takes centre stage. Exceedingly spacious, flooded in northern light and flowing to an entertainer's deck and gardens, this impressive domain with its stone topped soft-close kitchen boasting a full suite of quality appliances and fully plumbed outdoor BBQ and wine fridge proves the perfect space for bringing family and friends together. An equally impressive upstairs living room offers respite from the everyday while introducing three further bedrooms with robes and a designer family bathroom. Polished hardwood floors, contemporary lighting and plantation shutters add modern sophistication to this home that comes complete with a separate laundry, copious storage, heating/cooling and carport and enjoys excellent access to Alphington Park, Yarra Parklands, elite schools, transport and Station Street's fabulous range of shopping, cafes and restaurants.
