Situated in one of Williamstown's most peaceful pockets, this stately solid-brick home offers superb family living over two spacious levels. Bay windows add timeless elegance to the light-filled interiors, while two newly renovated bathrooms promise everyday luxury. Downstairs multiple living areas ensure plenty of room to move. The open-plan lounge and formal dining room is accentuated by a stunning feature fireplace, while the adjoining open-plan kitchen/living/meals space offers a more casual area for the family to enjoy. The upper level is devoted to rest, with four bedrooms offering inviting retreats for the whole family. Parents will fall head over heels for the incredible master suite, with a large walk-in robe, a superb ensuite and a roomy study/retreat space inviting you to set up a private lounge or a quiet workspace. The private balcony is the cherry on top, offering bay glimpses and a quiet spot to enjoy your morning cuppa. The three additional bedrooms are all appointed with built-in robes for enviable storage and share the stunning main bathroom, where a luxurious freestanding bathtub invites you for a relaxing soak. Outside, a wraparound deck offers effortless alfresco entertaining, with the private, secure back garden providing the perfect safe play space for the kids. A guest powder room and a walk-in laundry add extra family appeal, while under-stair storage and off-street parking complete this enticing package. Why you'll love this location: Enjoying a coveted lifestyle location, this welcoming family home offers an enviably peaceful lifestyle just moments from Williamstown's bustling town centre. The beautiful Bay Trail is just metres from your front door inviting you for a scenic morning ride or walk along the waterfront, while the superb Jawbone Conservation Reserve and Marine Sanctuary is just a five-minute* stroll from home promising endless outdoor adventure. Williamstown's iconic beach and stunning botanic gardens await a six-minute* drive away, while Cherry Lake awaits moments from home offering another natural escape. Walk to Woolworths and local eateries in 11 minutes* and drive to the heart of Williamstown in six minutes* to enjoy its renowned coastal village, with fabulous big-name and boutique shopping and the convenience of Coles, cafes and gourmet grocers. Sought-after school zoning adds extra appeal for families, with Newport Garden Primary School a five-minute* drive from home and Bayside College's Williamstown campus within easy walking distance.
