Discover your family's dream home in the heart of Vermont. This exquisite five-bedroom plus study house is perfectly designed for those looking to upsize and provide a comfortable and spacious abode for their growing family. Nestled in a quiet corner block, surrounded by nature and in close proximity to Vermont's primary and secondary schools, this property truly offers the perfect blend of modern living and a serene lifestyle. As you step inside, you'll immediately be captivated by the warmth and character of the polished pine floorboards that adorn the kitchen and family room. The property boasts three generous living areas, providing ample space for both entertaining guests and spending quality family time together. The recently renovated upstairs bathroom offers a touch of luxury while the additional bathroom downstairs ensures the comfort and convenience of a large family. The home is equipped with ducted heating on the ground floor and evaporative cooling upstairs, ensuring year-round comfort. The laundry and powder room have also been recently renovated, adding to the property's functionality. Outside, indulge in the salt-chlorinated solar heated concrete swimming pool, providing endless summer fun for the entire family. The garden comes complete with landscape lighting, offering a tranquil and ambient outdoor space for relaxation and alfresco dining. The property also includes a carport with additional room for off street parking. Located just a stone's throw from the beautiful Bellbird Dell and with easy access to Eastlink, this idyllic Vermont residence awaits your family's arrival. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to secure your dream family home.
