

4 Macona Crescent, Cannonvale, Qld 4802

Sold House

Wednesday, 25 October 2023

4 Macona Crescent, Cannonvale, Qld 4802

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 1201 m2

Type: House

Jennifer Rattray
0749487810

Contact agent

Located in a highly sought after area of Cannonvale, this classic Whitsunday home captures stunning Northern sea views from the large timber deck and has endless potential for the right buyer ready to renovate and make their new sea view home something truly special. The split level top floor features two bedrooms separated by a generous bathroom, along with an open plan lounge, dining, and kitchen area complemented by vaulted ceilings and gorgeous timber features. The wrap around timber deck is fully covered and perfect for entertaining or just relaxing and taking in the stunning Cannonvale views and Coral Sea outlook. On the lower level, a kitchenette, lounge area, two additional bedrooms with robes, and another bathroom await via separate access. This genuine dual living design is perfect for guests, teenagers, or owners looking for a property that can generate income. A huge pebble-tec pool and surrounding deck are also located on the bottom floor, with the natural bush surrounds of the large 1,201 square meter block offering peace and privacy. Highlighted by its resilient and sturdy hardwood timber, the home boasts durability and strength. An ample sized, private driveway provides easy access to undercover parking and level entry to the ground floor. Features at a glance:- Stunning Cannonvale and Coral Sea Views- Wrap around, covered deck- Vaulted ceilings and classic timber features- Dual living with separate access- Huge, in ground pool- Easy, private driveway access and off street parking- Large 1,201sqm block and lush bush surrounds- Fantastic Cannonvale location- So much potential to make it your own! You have got to come and see this special home to appreciate all it has to offer. Call today for more information and to book your private inspection.