4 Marks Street in Kiama is a beautifully maintained family home that boasts a range of compelling features. Its prime beachside location, nestled between Easts Beach and Kendalls Beach, offers an idyllic coastal lifestyle. The home has been thoughtfully modernised and is bathed in natural light, creating a comfortable and welcoming living space. Polished timber floors add a touch of warmth and elegance to the interior. Perfect for the family to enjoy, the home is complete with three bedrooms, spacious main bathroom, euro-style laundry, lounge room, kitchen, separate dining, 6.6kW solar system, solar hot water. The property's outdoor space features a stunning in-ground pool surrounded by a spacious outdoor entertaining area. This setting is perfect for relaxation and hosting outdoor gatherings. In addition to the main house, the property includes a separate flat with two bedrooms and access to a renovated bathroom, making it ideal for guest accommodation, in-laws, or a teenage retreat. The expansive 891sqm block offers ample room for various outdoor activities and landscaping possibilities. The spacious double garage provides ample parking and storage space, additionally there is an abundance of off-street parking as well as side access ideal for parking a boat, trailer, or extra cars. In summary, 4 Marks Street, Kiama, is a versatile and well-maintained family home located in the highly desired beachside Kiama. With modernised features, a separate flat, and an outdoor area featuring a pool and entertainment space, it's a compelling choice for families and those seeking a coastal lifestyle. Additionally, the generous land size provides opportunities for future development or improvements, making it a promising investment in the coastal property market.
