This stunning two-storey residence is thoughtfully designed for families seeking a low-maintenance lifestyle. Located in the thriving Aintree suburb this home only three years young is what you've been eagerly awaiting. Stepping inside this inviting home you'll discover a sunlit lounge area that welcomes you as you enter. A wide hallway seamlessly guides you towards the well-appointed kitchen with sleek stone countertops, a walk-in pantry and charming pendant lighting. The kitchen boasts top-of-the-line 900mm stainless steel appliances including a dishwasher. It gracefully overlooks the dining and family area with easy access to the alfresco area beneath the roofline-an ideal setting for outdoor gatherings. Moving upstairs this home also features four bedrooms which all have spacious built-in robes. The master bedroom offers a full ensuite and a walk-in robe. There is also a central bathroom which caters to the needs of the entire household. Upstairs there is a spacious sitting area which serves as an ideal kid's retreat providing them with their dedicated play space. Not to mention this home is packed with extras including efficient gas ducted heating, quality flooring throughout and a split-system cooling system. In a prime location you'll find yourself in close proximity to the Aintree Shopping Centre and the prestigious Bacchus Marsh Grammar (Woodlea) School. Additionally the residence is surrounded by beautiful parklands offering a well-rounded lifestyle with all amenities at your fingertips.
