If you enjoy stunning sea views, whale watching, spectacular sunsets and little penguins then this beautiful waterfront home should be your next address! Lifestyle living at its best with plenty of options to enjoy the outdoors, including a balcony with undercover entertaining, a patio, and an outdoor deck - you'll have all the space you need to enjoy the beautiful location. Inside boasts a sun-drenched family living area with 180-degree views of the ocean, a Tas oak kitchen with separate dining, 3 good sized bedrooms including master with ensuite and walk-in-robe and if you are looking for room for an office space or second living the rumpus room could be either and there is also the convenience of a double garage with internal access and easy care gardens to complete the package. Outside the home sits nicely on the flat, fully fenced approximately 693sqm block, and is located in a quiet cul-de-sac with Cooee beach and the walking track to Burnie at your doorstep you'll have everything you need at your fingertips. And as an added bonus, the home is located in an E-Scooter area, making trips to the Burnie CBD even faster and easier without the need for a car, even the disused railway tracks have been earmarked for a coastal pathway for cyclists and pedestrians linking Wynyard to Burnie. Don't miss out on this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity - now is your chance to own a piece of paradise.
