Retreat and relax in this log cabin-style home. Boasting a magical location, with only a section of crown land separating it from the shimmering waters of Ralphs Bay. Imagine waking up each day to such calming and stunning views. Here, nature becomes an extension of your living space, and the Tangara Trail beckons you to explore - Meander along the trail and be embraced by the tranquility of the surrounding wilderness until you reach the waterfront. Continue strolling and the trail leads you right up to Mortimer Bay. As you return to your home retreat, you'll be reminded of the unparalleled privilege of living so close to nature's beauty. The open-plan living area is strategically designed to capture the mesmerizing water vista, only disturbed by the gums swaying in the breeze. Gaze up at the cathedral ceilings as sunlight dances through ample windows, casting a radiant glow over the stylishly updated interior. During cooler evenings, cozy up to the wood heater and enjoy the ambiance, or use the convenience of the heat pump to keep the warmth just right. The kitchen, with its spacious design and elegant granite benches, makes meal preparation a pleasurable experience, where you can delight in crafting delicious meals. Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, one smaller nursery, and the other a large master - a place where you can rest, soothed by the gentle sounds of nature. The main bathroom is complete with a corner spa, separate shower, and toilet. Venturing downstairs, you will discover a second living room, an additional bedroom, and a second bathroom. This flexible space would be perfect for a playroom, a second area to entertain, or a teenager's retreat. With a generous house size of approximately 193 sqm, this log cabin-style home invites you to live a calm and relaxed lifestyle - an opportunity to embrace the captivating allure of the waterfront and the coziness of a charming log cabin while enjoying life by the seaside.
