This is a cute cottage with loads of character and offering plenty of potential to add your own touches and make it even sweeter than it already is. Featuring high ceilings and original tongue and groove walls, all bedrooms and lounge are carpeted plus there is a gas heater to keep the home cosy. A north facing sunny kitchen and dining area will be a great spot to look out over your low-maintenance back yard complete with lawn locker and views to Mount Marlay. One bedroom has built-in robes, the bathroom has shower and vanity, toilet is separate and a laundry with storage space is located to the rear of the carport. Quart Pot Creek parklands and Stanthorpe town centre are a stroll away - 4 Pierpoint Street could be the home to enjoy a simple low-stress lifestyle, as an investment or as your country retreat. Call the exclusive agents at Crisp Real Estate soon to arrange your inspection.
