If you're looking for a stylish and contemporary home to relax in or a solid low maintenance investment positioned at the end of a quiet cul de sac, then this is the house for you. This as new, quality home has been tastefully styled with neutral colours ready for your personal touches. The home boasts 3 bedrooms which are all carpeted and have built in robes, plus a small 4th bedroom or office. With quality tiles through the living spaces and additional extras including air-conditioning security screens, dishwasher and Invisi-Gard doors plus 5kw solar, all your creature comforts will be catered for. The kitchen is perfectly appointed with beautiful Caesar Stone bench tops and lots of space to create inspirational meals. The bathrooms offer stone benches, the main has a separate bath, and the ensuite offers an oversized shower. Outside is an entertainer's delight with an under roof patio admiring mountain and valley views and enjoying beautiful breezes, also an additional alfresco BBQ area. The property is fully fenced and the yard has beautiful, established gardens. There's also plenty of garage space and additional room for your boat and trailer. This home has a private and serene rural outlook and will definitely impress you, so ensure you view this one!
