

4 Ross Avenue, Invermay, Tas 7248

Sold House

Sunday, 13 August 2023

4 Ross Avenue, Invermay, Tas 7248

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 3

Area: 769 m2

Type: House

Karen Magnotta

$582,000

Welcome to Number 4 Ross Avenue, a charming and elegant home filled with natural light, perfect for those seeking a delightful living space. Whether you desire two or three bedrooms, this home offers a versatile floor plan to suit your needs. The open-plan kitchen, dining, and living space create a warm and inviting ambiance, perfect for entertaining. Recently updated, this property boasts new carpet, top-quality block-out blinds, and freshly painted walls, giving it a bright, breezy, and clean feel. The full-size bathroom features a shower over the bath and a single vanity, with added space for your washing machine, making everyday tasks convenient and enjoyable. For those with guests who love to stay over, the separate bungalow with two sets of bunk beds offers a comfortable and welcoming space for them. Beyond the home's beauty, its sought-after location adds even more appeal. Just a short stroll away from the iconic Star Theatre, you'll find many restaurants, cafes, and scenic walking tracks nearby. Educational facilities are conveniently close, with St. Finn Barrs Catholic Primary School right over the back fence, and Invermay Primary, Grammar Senior School, and Big Picture School in close proximity. Additionally, the University of Tasmania Inveresk Campus, the city CBD, Seaport, and the famous Cataract Gorge are all within walking distance. With the added bonus of secure outside storage, you'll have ample space to store all your belongings and keep your home organized and clutter-free. Key Features: • New carpet • Top-quality block-out roller blinds • Updated wiring and fittings • Freshly painted throughout • Restained deck Book an inspection today and see firsthand why this property stands out in the market.