

4 Schotts Lane, Berrima, NSW 2577

Sold House

Saturday, 24 February 2024

4 Schotts Lane, Berrima, NSW 2577

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

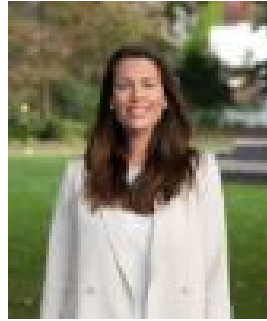

Parkings: 1

Area: 1602 m2

Type: House

Gene Fairbanks

Kathryn PogsonPike
0452230383

Contact agent

A quiet laneway and gated entrance presents an unassuming entry to Bon Accord. Stepping into the courtyard, adorned with manicured gardens, hedging and a vine-covered house, you'll be instantly charmed and feel like you're on holiday in the South of France. Merely moments away from all the best Berrima has to offer, including hatted restaurants, cafes, parks and antique shops, this is the ultimate escape from city life or even bustling Bowral. Nestled into a generous 1,602sqm parcel, the property comes with a swimming pool, aforementioned manicured and parterre gardens, veggie beds, water tanks and various spots to enjoy a morning coffee or evening drink. The house is quaint and has been renovated to enhance open-plan living and dining to the kitchen to also include a walk-in pantry. Imagine yourself hosting summertime bottomless brunches and long lunches with ease thanks to the seamless transition of indoor to outdoor entertaining. Alternatively, enjoy wrapping up by the open fireplaces when the Highlands' signature weather kicks in. Three bedrooms, a bathroom and an externally-accessed laundry with separate toilet wrap a neat little bow around this divine home. Within walking distance to Berrima Primary School, world-famous eateries and a fantastic park for the kids, this is a property that will meet the needs of the whole family, whether it be full-time living or a lock-up-and-leave to enjoy on the weekends.