Step into the enchanting charm of this captivating two-storey Victorian Terrace, boasting three bedrooms, two bathrooms and a touch of timeless elegance. Nestled on one of North Melbourne's most vibrant tree-lined streets, this home offers a contemporary and refreshed facade adorned with intricate iron lacework. As you enter, a welcoming hallway beckons you into a cosy living area, where a gas log fireplace exudes warmth and charm. Ascend a few steps to discover a sun-kissed dining and kitchen area bathed in natural light, that pours through a breathtaking glass atrium and frames the open-air courtyard that accesses a ROW. The kitchen features a skylight and charming brick hearth over a gas stove, and a large island bench, pantry space and laundry facilities. The ground floor, a bedroom awaits, showcasing an open fireplace, plush carpeting, and an elegant ceiling rose. Here, you'll also find the convenience of a shower and toilet facility. Venturing upstairs, two more bedrooms await, one granting access to a balcony, while both offer built-in robes. These bedrooms share a central bathroom. With its distinctive leadlight entry, picture rails, and fresh carpeting, this home radiates an irresistible allure. Stroll to the nearby supermarket or enjoy the tranquillity of nearby parks. Embrace the ease of transport with a bus stop just outside your door or take the tram into heart of the city.
