Welcome to 4 Somerset Road, Thornhill Park, where contemporary design meets family functionality. A grand entrance introduces a spacious formal lounge, setting the tone for stylish living. Journeying through this residence, a large kitchen steals the spotlight, featuring 900mm stainless steel appliances, stone benchtops, and an oversized walk-in pantry. This culinary haven seamlessly flows into the open plan meals/living area, extending to the outdoor pergola and low-maintenance backyard for a perfect blend of indoor and outdoor living. For added convenience, a downstairs powder room enhances the functionality of the living space. Upstairs unveils a retreat of comfort with four bedrooms, including a master retreat with a large ensuite, walk-in robe, and an oversized shower, along with a private balcony. The remaining bedrooms, each adorned with built-in robes, are serviced by a spacious bathroom that includes a bathtub and a separate toilet. The large upstairs retreat provides additional living space, ensuring ample room for the whole family. A range of extras adds to the appeal of this home, including a double lockup garage with internal access, a laundry with external access, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, low-maintenance gardens, side gate access, and much more. Centrally located amidst all that Thornhill Park has to offer, including local schools, transport, and almost completed shops/supermarket, restaurants, cafes, gym and medical centre right at your doorstep; this residence invites you to experience the epitome of modern family living. Enquire now and seize the opportunity to make 4 Somerset Drive Road your new home.
