A superbly located home where a combination of style and character are perfectly paired. This charming home is well positioned in the desirable Steane Street, making it very accessible to the CDB schools and shops. Providing 3 bedrooms with the bungalow offering a potential 4th bedroom or office. The main bathroom features a tasteful renovation with stone benchtop and a frameless glass shower. Further enhancing the home is 10ft ceiling height, polished timber floors, new carpets, freshly painted with upgraded wiring, double-glazed windows, and new window furnishings. The central kitchen is fully functional with adjoining meals area, whilst the separate dining and living room features a gas log fire. Year-round comfort is ensured with ducted heating & cooling along with ceiling fans throughout the home. The spacious 709m² block provides perfect north facing orientation and designed for outside living. The solar heated pool is surrounded by frameless glass balustrade, 2-meter-high fencing and stunning landscaping creating a fully secure and private escape. Shedding and open storage completes the package. This property is move in ready and presents a fantastic opportunity for anyone looking to secure a fantastic home, on a spacious block, in the desirable Steane Street. Please call Danial Siperki to arrange your private inspection on 0400 027 473.
