Magnificent Walter Burley Griffin Home A stellar example of the work of Walter and Marion Mahony Griffin, the "Johnson House" is a heritage listed home built in 1922. The current owners have lovingly restored it to highlight the unique architectural features with luxurious modern updates. Embraced by native and serenely private gardens that flow to the saltwater pool, it's a 300m stroll to Castlecrag Village. Buses to CBD and local schools. Original sandstone walls, some 1m thick in places, locally quarried on the site. Living with Cyprus Pine flooring, 3m high beamed ceilings, grand stone fireplace. Galley style kitchen and dining room with stone bench tops and Bosch appliances. Gas cooking, dishwasher, under bench fridge and microwave. Three spacious bedrooms, with cupboards, and a built-in robe in master bedroom. With a private garden outlook. Private luxe bathrooms with walk in showers, main with tub drenched in sunlight. Double garage with internal access, custom made replica Cedar windows. Replica WBG light fittings made to spec, Bravis gas underfloor heating
