From its plush carpets and attractive hybrid timber flooring to its stylish kitchen and elegant fittings, 4 Turner Road, Kedron is a head-turner, alright. On the lower level, the double remote garage offers internal access through to the spacious living and dining rooms. The latter opens to the deck where you can enjoy a wind-down drink of an evening or a leisurely breakfast on weekends. Even the most reluctant home cook will appreciate the kitchen, a fabulous workspace with stone waterfall benchtops, an island bench and pantry. It features gas cooking, and under-bench oven and dual bowl sink. The lower level is also home to a powder room, the laundry, and an additional linen closet. Head upstairs to the middle level, where you'll find the 4 bedrooms, the master a huge, carpeted room with air-conditioning, ensuite and walk-in wardrobe. The other 3 bedrooms are also carpeted and air-conditioned and have built-in wardrobes. There is also a balcony, a lovely spot to sit and chat, read a book or have friends over. The upper level is a glorious, carpeted space featuring a fantastic media room. Lounge around and enjoy movie night any time you like in the comfort of your own home. There's a ton of space on the upper level and you can choose how to utilise it. Homework area, kids' playroom, home office, the possibilities are endless. Everywhere you look, you'll notice quality finishes, from the double rain shower head in the ensuite to the deep soaker tub and vanity with storage in the main bathroom. Located in a quiet street within easy reach of public transport, shops, schools and cafes, this home will connect you well with whatever you need. Locally, there are medical centres, gyms, childcare centres and a range of eateries. You'll be within walking distance of the prestigious private school precinct, featuring Padua, Mt Alvernia and St Anthony's. Stafford City is just down the road with cinemas, Woolworths, Aldi, Kmart and food options, or go the other way to Market Central Lutwyche. Access to the Airport Link tunnel is close by too.
