

4 Walker Street, Rippleside, Vic 3215

House For Sale

Monday, 18 March 2024

4 Walker Street, Rippleside, Vic 3215

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 491 m2

Type: House

Tom Harrison
0421508877

Kieron Hunter
0435798405

$1,150,000-$1,250,000

This impeccably enhanced character home exudes sophistication and practicality, seamlessly blending original period features with modern design elements. High ceilings, ornate cornices, and gleaming floorboards grace the interior, elevating its allure. The expansive master bedroom features a walk-in robe and en-suite, while two additional bedrooms boast built-in robes. A designer central bathroom caters to the household with its shower, bathtub, and vanity, while a second living area offers versatility as a secluded retreat or potential fourth bedroom or study. The well-equipped laundry is adorned with ample bench and cupboard space. The grand open-plan living/dining area, adorned with polished timber floors, integrates a chef-worthy kitchen featuring exquisite stone benchtops, a spacious walk-in pantry, and a freestanding stainless steel 900mm oven and range-hood. Bi-fold timber doors effortlessly connect to an alfresco-style outdoor area, creating an inviting indoor/outdoor living space perfect for entertaining. Outside, the beautifully landscaped backyard offers a secure retreat for the entire family. Ample off-street parking includes a double garage with workshop space and additional car spaces in the side driveway. Nestled in the sought-after enclave of Rippleside, mere moments from Rippleside Beach, Corio Bay, Balmoral Quay marina, Rippleside Park, and the Melbourne-bound train, this property presents an ideal blend of lifestyle and convenience, perfect for achieving work-life balance.