This pretty house sits at the rear of the 1012m² block and is enveloped in beautiful foliage and stunning trees that provide a magical entrance to the home. Recently repainted externally, the colour palette fits perfectly with its lush, green surrounds and the front and rear decks provide a private haven to sit and enjoy the lovely winter sun. Take a short walk to the end of the street and find yourself at Sandpiper Beach to watch the stunning sunsets. WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU INSPECT: - Three bedrooms, the master with ensuite and walk in robe. This room is massive and has soaring ceilings and enough space to create a perfect parents retreat. - Two of the bedrooms are on the top floor with a separate living space, study or studio. - Open plan living with breakfast bar opening into the renovated galley kitchen. - Separate laundry and family bathroom. - Rear veranda overlooking the enchanting, rainforest like garden. - Garden shed and carport. - The front deck sits among the foliage and provides a cool environment to enjoy a cold drink or coffee. My client has obligations elsewhere and will look at all reasonable offers. To inspect please call me today to arrange your private viewing. Macleay Island lies just 18 minutes from Redland Bay via passenger ferry and a further 45 minutes to Brisbane CBD or the airport. Our village offers all of the amenities you would expect including Post Office, medical facilities, ambulance and police officers, clubs and café's, hairdressers and retail stores.
