Edgy, bold and damn right impressive is this incredible family home offering so much to the aspiring and adventurous buyer! The floor plan is as good as you'll see, with the very well thought out living zones that offer an open study or kids zone, large formal lounge room and a very spacious dining and family room. So much room for activities! There are major statements wherever you look and the kitchen is as good as you'll get. A brilliant combination of dark and light cabinetry, impressive glass window splashback and amazing curved stone island bench will have you giddy! Creative bulkheads and higher ceilings in the main living areas are further features that just impress! A master bathroom you could only dream for is also on offer with the most desirable egg-shaped stone bath that is a statement like no other! Stunning colours, tones and finishings that you'll be the envy of. The master also features a beautiful en suite, and the large entertaining with timber lined ceilings, external heaters and a grab backyard is set for your upcoming summer. Reverse Cycle Heat and Cool, large double garage UMR, auto sprinklers - there are features galore! This feature packed home is striking on so many levels and delivers on all fronts, and positioned right across from the new sporting precinct it's convenient too!
