Located in a peaceful, leafy cul-de-sac enclave of West Orange, close to Duntryleague, parkland, schools and pre schools. This impressively spacious family home is a true standout, and is sure to impress with its light filled and unique interior. Situated on a level 1262m² parcel of land with lovely, landscaped gardens, rear yard access, off street parking and a covered entertaining space. The fully fenced and secure backyard will contain your furry friends and kids, there is also a water tank, garden shed and a huge double garage with space for a workshop and/or mezzanine. The generous layout of formal living and dining room, separate from the kitchen, family and casual dining, makes perfect sense for modern living, whatever the occasion. The sunken formal lounge offers high ceilings and a wood fireplace provides a cosy ambience on cool evenings. While the hub of everyday life is the stylish timber kitchen with walk in pantry, meals areas and family room featuring vaulted ceilings and loads of natural light. The primary suite is fabulous in size and includes a walk in robe, ensuite, and study that provide light and a pretty outlook into the atrium. Three other spacious bedrooms with robes complete the accommodation and are serviced by a large family bathroom with a spa bath. This gorgeous property has so much to offer, with room to update and a premier location. Contact our team today for a private viewing or to arrange a floor plan.
