Set high and proud in an exclusive culdesac location amongst quality homes and showcasing arguably the most stunning north facing views over Jervis Bay and beaches with the rear of the property backing onto scenic national park. Offered for the first time since master built, this grand 2 storey residence has been much loved and is ultra spacious in size and design. Downstairs features 4 good sized bedrooms including a huge master suite with ensuite, WIR and study/office serviced by an internal lift. With internal access to the oversized double garage with workshop area, high doors, plenty of storage and a w/c and the added bonus of a detached high carport for the boat/caravan. The spacious upstairs living encapsulated the panoramic views with three well proportioned living areas surrounding the central kitchen with national park views from the rear deck. A truly unique property in a private location is a must to inspect to appreciate all that is on offer and marvel over the most spectacular views in the bay.
