Tucked away at the end of a no-through road this little gem is waiting to be discovered! From the road a spacious carport leads up into the portico, as you arrive through the front entry you are greeted with a large open-plan living with beautiful polished floorboards, a Modern kitchen, electric appliances and a wood heater to warm you on cold days. The kitchen is stunning and features a fantastic walk-in pantry. A second living room opens off the kitchen and also features timber floorboards, a second bathroom and Euro-style laundry behind sliding doors. Down the central hallway are the three main bedrooms, All of which have been updated, the updated bathroom has two-way access to the fourth bedroom. Evaporative cooling is ducted throughout and 3 Split System units help keep the house just how you want it, year-round. A carport that stretches the length of the house and all the way to a big shed is a real gem. It could even double as an entertaining area. With 10KW of Solar power installed recently, you are sure to enjoy the savings for years to come. The shed has power and plenty of storage. The property even has 3 phase power. Don't wait this will be snapped up quickly!
