When it come to searching for your first home or a investment property in the right location, then this is the property for you. Set on a huge block with brilliant shedding, room for the boat or van and great rear yard for the growing family or for entertaining? This three bedroom home is truly a must see, with a spacious kitchen that has loads of storage, gas central heating as well as a split system and three good sized bedrooms with built in robes. A home that is in a location like this, surrounded by the school precinct and open to you making it your own, a property does not come up on the market very often in this heart of the school zone.
