Situated within the exclusive Oyster Cove precinct of Helensvale, this stunning lowset waterfront home embodies luxury living at its finest. Situated on a spacious 819sqm block with approximately 18 metres of waterfront, this bespoke residence boasts high ceilings throughout and a grand central lounge with towering 3 metre ceilings. Its expansive full-height windows showcase breathtaking water and hinterland views, creating a serene and picturesque backdrop for luxurious living. The home's heart is its new modern kitchen, boasting a large central island bench with a breakfast bar, butler's style pantry, stone benchtops and quality Bosch appliances, including an induction cooktop. This culinary haven seamlessly connects to the covered alfresco and purpose-built outdoor kitchen, offering not just a feast for the taste buds but also stunning views over the water and hinterland. The master suite is a sanctuary of luxury, offering a full ensuite, walk-in robe, also featuring direct access to a private decked courtyard, perfect for enjoying the tranquil surroundings and lovely hinterland and water views. Each of the family bedrooms are generously sized and include fitted robes and ceiling fans. The home also boasts the added luxury of a genuine office and separate media room, providing ample space for work or relaxation. This home is a must-see. Features include:
