Situated in a very quiet, precinct near the Country Club Casino and golf course, this four-bedroom, two-bathroom home on a spacious 992m² parcel of land is simply ideal for the larger family or the couple who wish to be on one level and close to all amenities. Presented in absolutely immaculate condition, this brick 266m² home offers wonderful large, open living spaces, four-queen bedrooms (all with built-ins), a generous family bathroom and a similar ensuite. Surrounded by pristine gardens, offering lovely views from each room, you will enjoy every square metre of this perfect landscaped garden, all on a totally flat piece of land. The double remote garage doors lead to an internal access to keep you dry in rainy weather and the two spacious living areas deliver space for all concerned. The kitchen is ideally situated in the middle of the property and forms the central space for gatherings and that important end-of-day chat. Surrounded by sunshine all day, you will love the convenience of all shops, medical, schools and leisure right at your fingertips. There is even a separate room for hobbies or a rumpus space for your teenagers. Lovingly cared-for since it was built, you can feel the warmth and happiness that this home provides from the moment you enter. This is certainly a home not to miss!
