Woodards Peninsula is delighted to showcase this charming 3-bedroom residence, a rarity in the market. The property exudes distinctive character and is poised to capture the attention. The master bedroom boasts its private ensuite and a spacious walk-in robe, while the remaining two bedrooms feature built-in robes and share a separate bathroom—an undeniable highlight of this home. Abundant living space creates an inviting, open atmosphere, complemented by the warmth of hardwood floors. Ceiling fans are strategically placed throughout to provide comfort on warm summer days, and a split system is in place for temperature control, ensuring a pleasant living environment in both hot and cold seasons. This property is equipped with various amenities, including sheds for storing gardening tools and a workspace at the back of the garage for those with a penchant for handy work. To discover more about this exceptional property, feel free to reach out, and be sure to attend the upcoming open house. The details presented here are compiled from pertinent third-party sources.
