You will say "Wow!" when you see this absolutely delightful home! Built in 1994, it has only had one very proud owner since new. But it's time to move on and so it is ready for a new owner to move in and enjoy as much as the owners have. It features a stunning kitchen overlooking an open space dining/lounge area. It has two bedrooms, both with built-in robes, and a pretty two-way bathroom. The home also offers a family room that could easily be a third bedroom if desired. Outside the home you have a double garage under the main roof with an internal door to the hallway. There is a spacious under-cover entertaining area - just ideal for those summer barbeques. All set on landscaped gardens your inspection is recommended.
