This classic Dalmeny home is packed full of essential features you will want in your next home. With three good sized bedrooms with built-ins and the master with an ensuite, there's plenty to love about this property. An open plan kitchen and living area flows seamlessly out to a fully enclosed front yard with views over the lake and ocean. A huge double garage and plenty of storage compliment this single-level, low maintenance home. Located in the heart of Dalmeny and within walking distance to the bike path, the lake, the local park and the brewery, there really is something for everyone. This home would be perfect for the first home buyer, the investor or someone looking to retire to the beautiful South Coast. Take your first step today to make this your next home and contact Steve from LJHooker Narooma to book an appointment.
